Case No.: 2:13-cv-02335-MMD-PAL

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE
JOINT PRETRIAL ORDER
(4TH REQUEST)

Plaintiff, Diana L. Hust, by and through her attorney of record, Kristina S. Holman, moves this Court for additional time for the parties to submit their Joint Pretrial Order. This extension is requested in good faith and for good cause, and not for the purpose of undue delay.

Plaintiff's counsel, Ms. Holman, submitted (by email) the joint pretrial order to Defendant's counsel this afternoon for his review. Ms. Holman also called his office this afternoon and was advised that he was gone for the day. Ms. Holman advised him that if she did not receive a reply that she would file this motion with the Court since the filing deadline was yesterday.

1 Plaintiff requests an additional three (3) days for opposing counsel to complete his
 2 review, and to discuss any revisions or additions. Plaintiff's counsel anticipates that the parties
 3 should have the joint pretrial order filed with the Court on or before Wednesday, October 28,
 4 2015.

 6 The joint pretrial order was initially due to be filed by Thursday, October 15, 2015. The
 7 parties stipulated and this Court granted a one-week extension up to and including Thursday,
 8 October 22, 2015 in which to file the joint pretrial statement. Plaintiff's counsel received
 9 Defendant's information (two email messages) for inclusion in the joint pretrial order just
 10 yesterday morning. Plaintiff's counsel has prepared the joint pretrial order and incorporated
 11 that information, and has submitted it to opposing counsel today, waiting for his approval.
 12 Yesterday, due to problems with the computer (for which she has contacted IT), the process of 13 opening email was delayed. When opposing counsel's information was obtained, it was 14 included. Plaintiff's counsel called opposing counsel yesterday late afternoon advising his staff
 15 of the computer difficulties but that she was incorporating his information.

18 Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant this motion of an additional three
 19 days to allow Defendant the opportunity to review the pretrial order.
